Standing

A member has the floor when recognized by the Speaker, and does not have to stand up.

In-Camera Session

Immediately after a motion to move in-camera passes, the mover of the motion must explain the reasons for moving in-camera. After discussion, a member of the board must motion whether to remain in-camera or to return to open session.

Speaking Limits

Members are permitted to speak any number of times to a single motion, unless the board votes otherwise.
